

CARDIAC CARE PROGRAM

Acute Myocardial Infarction (AMI)

Education and Treatment for Home Care Patients

- Advanced and Comprehensive Initial/On-Going Assessments
- Disease Management and Teaching (Nursing)
 - Causes and Risk Factors
 - Signs and Symptoms to Report
 - Nutrition Programs
 - Monitoring for weight changes/edema
 - Medication Reconciliation and Education
 - Beta Blockers
 - Ace Inhibitors
 - Diuretic therapy/anticoagulation therapy
 - Potassium replacement therapy
 - Digoxin
 - Oxygen
 - Lifestyle Changes/Lifetime Management
 - Risk Reduction Programs
 - Teaching for patient and caregivers
- Exercise programs—importance of activity (Therapy)
 - Physical Therapy Services for Graded Exercise Programs to Improve Endurance and Cardiac Health
 - Occupational Therapy Services for ADL's
 - Exercise Programs tailored to the patient's needs
- Coordination with Physician
 - Reporting Changes in Patient Condition
 - Coordinating Labs and Testing
 - Medication changes
 - Help patients keep their scheduled doctor's appointments
- Heart Monitoring—Telehealth Monitoring
 - (Blood Pressure, Heart Rate, Weight, Pulse Oximetry)
 - Reports available for physicians
 - Individualized reports can help monitor changes
 - Electronically monitored services
 - Individualized questions that will help determine the need for earlier interventions
- Reduce Hospitalizations due to Complications

Call Toll Free
877-718-1306
Or Fax
855-718-1309

