

WOUND CARE

Venous Stasis Ulcers

Education and Treatment for Home Care Patients

NURSING

- Disease Management and Teaching
 - Causes and Risk Factors to Avoid
 - Signs and Symptoms to Report
 - Protecting your skin from further trauma
 - Protecting your wound
 - Nutrition
 - Exercise and Elevation
 - Compression Options
 - Infection Control
 - Lifetime Management
 - Teaching for patient and caregivers

- Positioning Devices
 - Compression Options: Stockings, Wraps, CircAid, and Compression Units
 - Assistance with Obtaining DME and Supplies

- Coordination with Physician
 - Protocol – Dressing Selection Assistance
 - Wound consultations available
 - Certified Wound Specialists on staff
 - Wound Photographs and updates
 - Compression Options
 - Characteristics of Venous Ulcers
 - Vascular Testing: Ankle-Brachial Index, Doppler Studies, Ultrasound, Transcutaneous Oxygen Pressure
 - Reduce Hospitalizations due to Complications

Call Toll Free
877-718-1306
Or Fax
855-718-1309

